

We would like the no-call list to continue as is. We feel we have a right to privacy in our own home, without interruptions from people trying to sell, promote, etc. over the phone.